November 12-15, 2024 | Centara Riverside Hotel, Chiang Mai, Thailand

CMRU in Brief

Chiang Mai Rajabhat University (CMRU), one of the most prestigious educational institutions in northern Thailand, was founded in 1924. CMRU identifies itself as a university closely connected to local community development. With its two campuses, CMRU is easily accessible and can serve the needs of people living in the city and the nearby communities. As the first teacher training college in northern Thailand, CMRU has always been seeking ways to be a better resources for our community.

CMRU is located in Chiang Mai province in the heart of the city, widely recognized as the capital of Northern Thailand. Current enrollment is around 12,000 students; studying in regular and weekend programs.

CMRU has enjoyed collaboration with more than 40 international universities and institutions to improve the quality of teaching and research at the university. It offers Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctoral Degrees in various courses in Humanities and Social Sciences, Sciences, Education, Business, and Agriculture. In addition, short courses are available focusing on languages, such as Thai for Foreigners, Western languages, and Asian languages. CMRU responds to Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) as a university of lifelong community development with its four-dimensional methods including economy, health and quality of life, education for all ages, and society, environment, and culture. According to the survey conducted by Times Higher Education Impact Ranking 2021, CMRU is ranked number 1 on representing the only global performance scales that assess universities against the United Nations: Sustainable Development Goals (UN: SDGs) among 38 Rajabhat Universities nationwide and is accepted as the most trusted Rajabhat University by enrolled students.
